

9-1-1 Information:

When should you use 9-1-1?

9-1-1 should be used when you need immediate response from POLICE, FIRE or AMBULANCE.

Examples when to call:

Any crime in progress

Structure fire

Possibility of physical harm or property damage occurring

Need law enforcement right away

Shortness of breath, breathing has stopped, seizures, bleeding, vomiting blood, drowning, electrocution, poisoning, burns

Helpful hints to remember when you call 9-1-1!

Teach your children how to use 911 and when to use 911.

Make sure you give the dispatcher as much detail about the type of call.

Remain calm, and stay on the phone until help arrives.

Make sure your address is on your house and is clearly visible from the street.